

Free markets and unfettered competition are what a democracy is all about.
Don't stifle satellite radio by pandering to special interests